Correction

The Sunshine Report: Online erroneously stated in its December edition that Sen. Edd Houck was the first chair of the FOI Advisory Council. Former Delegate Chip Woodrum (also a former VCOG board member) was the first chair. I regret (and am very embarrassed by) the error.

Legislature 2012

You can stay up to date with the bills VCOG is following in the 2012 General Assembly in lots of different ways:

YOU LIKE US! YOU REALLY LIKE US!
(but won't you like us more?)

Forward this email to a friend

- The legislative update page on VCOG's website
- Our Facebook page
- Our Twitter feed
- Our daily email newsletter (click here to sign up)
- Our periodic legislative updates and our monthly e-newsletter

Occasionally, we will be asking for help as we lobby for or against bills. The calls, letters and personal testimony of Virginia's citizens, especially constituents, really matter to legislators. We will tell you about bills we need help on, as well as committee meeting times and committee members who should be contacted.

Make your open-government voice heard!

If you find VCOG's services and resources useful,
consider making a donation or becoming a member.
Your dues and/or donations go straight toward VCOG's modest operating budget and are 100% tax deductible

(a copy of our most recent IRS 990 and/or financial audit is available upon request)
